NOT ONE MORE DAY
No MORE killers!!

It should be noted that if you do not get BOAST with in a week of the deadline, write, or call me! This happened in game 720A, and the next issue was sent out before I had heard from the person. Thus he got a IIR! DO NOT LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU! Let me have permission to call you collect the day of the deadline for your moves if I have not gotten them! Let me know right away if you have not gotten a BOAST in time! I cannot be responsible for the US Post Office, and they are very bad! I'll do all I can, but I need your help!

Jim Pulsipher has been after me to let everyone know that you do not have to sub to BOAST to be a NOW member. You can send 50¢ to Jim and become a member, though then you would not get the info that is in BOAST of course.

BOAST keeps you up to date on all the happenings in NOW and reviews games for you and other such goodies.

I hope you like this Jim as I'm doing it for you! You going to re-sub Jim? You better or I'm going to....

This is Bob's second miss and he is dropped from this game. I'm asking D. Loerick to send in moves for Russia and in case he fails to again I'm asking J. Hendry, 17 Price Road to send in moves. For Turkey I'm asking Bill Thomas 18634 Birchcrest Dr. Detroit, MI. Add Peabody, Mass. to J. Hendry address.

NO PRESS

Out of staters may join NOW for $1.50 per yr. and receive the MFG, three or more times a year.

With this issue of BOAST I'm going over to a different type of Master. I hope to improve the quality of BOAST with these masters. This line should be going out after Jan 1, and hopefully by Jan 2. There was a long week of gaming at my house and well many letters will have to be answered this week along with other things.

DAMASCUS: After a short exile in this beautiful Syrian oasis, the Sultan launched a final thrust at the great port city of Smyrna. Once again the pride of the Turkish Army-the Sultan's Own 1st Army spearheaded the assault. Behind this elite force came the rest of the Turkish Army-the 21st carrier pigeon company. It is doubtful if they will take the city by storm and a siege is out of the question. Rotso'ruck guys. I'm asking Dean Schwass to send in the Turkish S/b moves.

The following is an address list which originated with Fritz von Frank's father, who was involved with some sort of miniatures players' organization. Fritz passed it to Herb, and I'm finally stuck with typing the thing. The list is about 7 years old, I'd say; there are only a few zip codes, and there are some zone numbers which are no longer used, of course. The list is disorganized and hard to read.

What a mess! Perhaps some of these people are still around, and likely many will be interested in boardgames as well as miniatures. Many of them live(d) near NOW members...

The latest Simulations Publications note that the publishers of Conflict magazine and Dunquerque 1940 have gone bankrupt. Apparently they are honoring their commitments for the game, since I got mine, and two issues of Conflict have already appeared.

Len Lakofka likes to tell people in his campaign statements for IDA President that he has been President of the International Federation of Wargaming for three years, and that IFW has over 500 members and a large budget (he gives exact figures). What he doesn't say is that IFW is just about down the tubes. The IFW has not appeared in months, most of the senators have dropped out, the membership records are a mess -- it's hard to believe as many mistakes as I've heard of, including people receiving IFW's six months after their membership expired, non-receipt of anything despite queries, etc. The point here is, don't join IFW -- you'll be throwing your money away. Also, don't vote for Lakofka (or Barsan) for IDA President; but see BLOOD AND IRON #13 for more on that.

Next time I will inflict a list of NOW games in progress upon you.

THE WARGAMING

SCENE

Spotlight on...

DUNKERQUE-1940

This game was a long time coming. Many people waited over six months for this game, I waited but 3. It is here and so is SDC. It comes to you via third class mail in a bookcase box. It is all that an AH game is, and very much like and AH game all over.

This game is on the 12 days May 20-31st. And covers the area around Dunkerque. There are rules for air power, sea power and, a what if Belgium box. There quite a bit here in this game and it has some very different ideas on how to do things. An example is that there are no dice, die in this game at all. Thus making it an intellectual game.

As I have said, the box, is like an AH Panzerblitz box, or so. The Board and counters are also on this scale, but just a hair below AH's high standard. There are charts that you have in many AH games. Unlike SPI and S&T all the charts are off the board, in some cases making it nicer and in others harder, since you have a clutter just off the board and this can become a mess. The only bad thing is that they give you only one CRT for both of you to look at and well more often than not both will want to study it at the same time.

As I have mentioned there are no dice in this game. For land combat it is a matter of having what type vs what type, and on what terrain, then both sides picking a number between one and four and finding the result on the matrix. All other combat is a certain type vs a certain type will give you such and such at these odds or so. Units are destroyed slowly as you have to get 4 Holds then it goes to 1 strength, and four more and Elim. Victory is on points, on how many units and the strength of the unit when it is destroyed.

The Germans and the allies have the option to have Bel fall faster or slower, than in the actual campaign, by adding or subtracting forces from Bel. The Germans want it to fall as they then are able to gain troops from Bel, and have more air strength to use also, as it would not be tied up in Bel.

Over all this game will be a good one. The time it takes to play goes down once you have the play mechanics down. It could be better organized as many charts are on the back of rules and what not. It is well worth the $8.

THIS IS A SINGLY PUBLICATION, EDITED BY NO ONE MAINLY, ME.

NEWS FROMES

The SICL has taken over the printing of Gamer Guide. It was noted that the former editor had to leave for lack of time. GG will come out about the same as before, though it will cost a bit more, I believe. It will be on a large page done off on both sides, much like the Galadator.

S&T in MOVES #4 or three, said that Simulations Design Corporation, were Bankrupt and would be soon out of business. Such is not the case! Their game DUNKERQUE-1940 has finally arrived and there CONFLICT #3 is in the mail. What I have seen from this company, it is well worth every cent that I have put in it. I hope only that they can come up with some more great things.

NGR #2 should be out by the time this is printed. I'm told that it will be 15+ pages of different things. In there will be a questionnaire that I hope many of you will fill out. It will go a long way with some of the things I have on mind. It will tell in which direction the gaming field is swinging it also. The results could be quite interesting, and if enough respond it will be put into NGR #4.

In a flyer, that was received here recently, The GENERAL is putting up an offer of 25¢ for one issue. They are trying to win back many of the readers that they have lost. They are now under the editorship of Donald Greenwood, the former editor of RAUSCHREFAUST. I haven't seen a copy but I would like to, any one got an issue?

Lowery's Hobbies have moved to Maine! Be patient if you have not received your orders of late. Besides moving they have added more people to their staff. They can be found at RD BK C, Belfast, Maine, 04915. In the GUIDON #4 they have advertised the Invasion of Sicily, among many other fine things. It is worth the buck to send for the catalog and get 3 Guidons too!

The first all ladies game has been opened, the GI is no other than the Carol Ann Buchanan !! That is only a rumor we will have to see if it is true.

The HOW column, by Lew Pulsipher, will stop after issue #28. I hope to keep something up like it though. I would like someone else maybe to take over Lew's column. Any takers.

No matter what Lew says, Jan, Feb, March and May are all be kind to Lew Pulsipher month. He has done one hell of a lot for HOW and general gaming than almost anyone. April will be be kind to Jim Pulsipher month.

GAMES? Well folks, I don't have any games open in BOAST. I have a Strat I WWI game open in Force March!. In STENCH!! I have OWII open. Any variant that you want of OWII. Prices are the cheapest anywhere, and the games are done off quite nicely.... I think. Also in Stench!! I have a Youngstown Variant that will open when I get 8 more players. STENCH!! comes out the same day as this rag, and you can get a sample copy by asking.

Paul Dan U37 has some MD openings.... address last issue.

Chic Miliker has some games still open, he is at 3312 Stonycress, Bloomington, Ind. 47401. His zine has just gone over the 100 in circulation mark, and it is a very fine zine!

The Midwestern Courier (misspelled and I don't feel like looking it up) has the All ladies game in it. You can watch my wife beat up on all the others! Write Ray Bouwers, 625 Evans, Kirkwood, Mo. 63122. and see the Femfatiles cut their throats!

Steve Bell, has but 2 spots left in his first 7 games to be filled. It is one of the rash of fine zines that have come out that make BOAST look like a paper to pick up dog.. with. He offers the first 5 issues at 50¢! That is a good deal, and by golly you can reach him at PO Box 1787, Davidson College, Davidson, NC. 28036.

One last, or two last items to mention are, the Tangelo Express and Voice of the North. The first from Richard Hull at 4720 Gloyne, Apt #2, Oxnard, Ca. 93030, the later from Tim Wilson, 200 W. 9th St, Sanit Ste. Marie, Ill. In both of these zines you'll find me playing (and losing) and got to read(?) my famous press releases that you have been reading about! Either way I suggest you write for more info.

This business is going to the dogs and in some cases the cats!
